

ASSURANCE OF VOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE

This Assurance of Voluntary Compliance¹ is entered into by the Attorneys General described in Section I(2) below, and Zappos.com, Inc., to resolve the Attorneys General's investigation of the unauthorized access of a Zappos server beginning on or about January 9, 2012. In consideration of their mutual agreements to the terms of this Assurance, and such other consideration as described herein, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree as follows:

I. DEFINITIONS

1. "Assurance" shall mean this Assurance of Voluntary Compliance.
2. "Attorneys General" shall mean the Connecticut Commissioner of Consumer Protection and the Attorneys General of the States of Arizona, Florida, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, North Carolina, Ohio and Pennsylvania. For purposes of this Assurance, each of the previously-described officials shall be described in the singular as an "Attorney General."
3. "Effective Date" shall mean the date on which Zappos has delivered its signature page of this Assurance to the Attorneys General and the Attorneys General have delivered a counterpart signature page of this Assurance to Zappos.
4. "Exfiltration Incident" shall mean the unauthorized access to and possible exfiltration of certain customer information (which Zappos represents did not include full credit card or other Personal Information as defined below) from Zappos' network and systems that occurred on or about January 9, 2012.
5. "Released Claims" shall mean all civil claims, causes of action, damages, restitution, fines, costs, and penalties that an Attorney General could have asserted against any of the Released Parties under the relevant consumer protection statute² arising out of or relating to the Exfiltration Incident. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Released Claims do not include claims for violation of this Assurance or claims pursuant to any other statute or regulation (including, without limitation, antitrust laws, environmental laws, tax laws, credit repair/service organization laws, buying club laws, and criminal statutes and codes), nor do they include actions or proceedings brought pursuant to State consumer protection laws or statutes alleging violations that are not related to the Exfiltration Incident.

6. “Released Parties” shall mean Zappos and its respective directors, officers, employees, agents, successors, and assigns.

7. “Personal Information” shall have the same definition as set forth in the applicable statute of the respective states of the Attorneys General.³ In the absence of an applicable statutory definition, “Personal Information” shall mean an individual’s first name and last name or first initial and last name in combination with any one or more of the following data elements that relate to such individual: (a) Social Security number; (b) driver’s license number; (c) state-issued identification card number; or (d) financial account number, credit or debit card number, in combination with any required security code, access code or password that would permit access to an individual’s financial account.

8. “States” shall mean the states identified in Section I(2) above.

9. “Zappos” shall mean Zappos.com, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

II. APPLICATION

The provisions of this Assurance shall apply to Zappos and its successors, merged or acquired entities, subsidiaries in which Zappos has a majority ownership interest, and assigns (including without limitation purchasers of substantially all of Zappos' assets), in connection with offering and/or providing any products and/or services to consumers, including but not limited to, the collection, retention, and/or storage of Personal Information.

III. REQUIREMENTS

Zappos shall, to the extent not already completed and/or performed:

1. Maintain and comply with its information security policies and procedures regarding the installation and use of servers (including associated software and processes), whether owned and/or operated by Zappos, or owned and/or operated by third parties and used by Zappos, that store and/or process Personal Information or that are connected to the network where Personal Information is stored and/or processed.
2. Provide the Attorneys General with its current security policy regarding information received by Zappos from consumers and any material updates to such policy for the next two years.
3. Provide the Attorneys General copies of reports showing its current compliance with the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard for the next two years.
4. Within 180 days of the Effective Date, obtain an information security audit of its security regarding Personal Information. Such audit shall be conducted by an independent third party selected by Zappos. Zappos shall inform the Attorneys General who it has selected for the information security audit, prior to commencement of the audit. Zappos shall provide the Attorneys General with a copy of such audit no later than thirty (30) days after receipt of such audit from the independent third party. If that audit identifies any deficiencies or recommendations for correction, Zappos shall include with the copy of the audit a plan and timetable for corrective action. The identification of any deficiencies or recommendations for correction in the audit shall not constitute a violation of this Assurance unless Zappos fails to take corrective action within the timetable. The information security audit, any plan and timetable for corrective action, and any other documents provided to the Attorneys General in relation to the information security audit shall be treated as exempt from public disclosure to the extent legally permitted in accordance with each State's public information and/or disclosure laws. The Attorneys General shall promptly notify Zappos of any discovery request or any request under a State's public information and/or disclosure laws, seeking material related to the information security audit.

5. Maintain and comply with its policies and procedures relating to information security, including without limitation policies and procedures relating to vulnerability assessments and patch management, and regularly assess and update such policies and procedures regarding the security of servers that contain or maintain Personal Information.

6. Within 30 days of the Effective Date, and for a period of two (2) years from the Effective Date of this Assurance, provide a copy of the Assurance to the categories and/or titles of Zappos personnel described on Exhibit A hereto.

7. Regularly and at least annually train relevant employees regarding its security policies, including the requirement that servers are reviewed and approved by Zappos' information security management prior to installation and utilization. Said training and any policies or materials relevant thereto shall be regularly reviewed and updated in combination with the requirements of Paragraph 5 of this Section III.

IV. PAYMENT TO THE STATES

Zappos shall pay a total of $106,000 (ONE HUNDRED SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS), to be divided and paid by Zappos directly to each of the Attorneys General in an amount to be designated by and in the sole discretion of the Attorneys General collectively. The Attorneys General shall provide Zappos with instructions for the payments to be distributed under this paragraph. Payment shall be made no later than thirty (30) days after the Effective Date and receipt of payment instructions by Zappos from the Attorneys General. Said payment shall be used by the Attorneys General for such purposes that may include, but are not limited to attorneys' fees and other costs of investigation and litigation, or to be placed in, or applied to, the consumer protection law enforcement fund, including future consumer protection or privacy enforcement, consumer education, litigation or local consumer aid fund or revolving fund, used to defray the costs of the inquiry leading hereto, or for any other uses permitted by state law, at the sole discretion of each Attorney General.⁴

V. RELEASE

By execution of this Assurance, and following a full and complete payment to an Attorney General, that Attorney General releases and forever discharges the Released Parties from all Released Claims.

VI. NO ADMISSIONS

This Assurance is for settlement purposes only, and neither the fact of, nor any provision contained in, this Assurance nor any action taken hereunder, shall constitute, be construed as, or be admissible in evidence as any admission or finding of wrongdoing by Zappos or any admission of the validity of any claim or any fact alleged in any other pending or subsequently filed action or of any wrongdoing, fault, violation of law, or liability of any kind on the part of the Released Parties or admission by any Released Parties of the validity or lack thereof of any claim, allegation, or defense asserted in any other action. Zappos believes that its conduct has been lawful and has not violated any consumer protection statutes or other laws of the States, and Zappos enters into this Assurance for settlement purposes only.

VII. POTENTIAL CONSEQUENCES OF NONCOMPLIANCE

Zappos represents that it has fully read and understood this Assurance and understands the legal consequences involved in signing this Assurance. Zappos expressly understands that any violation of this Assurance may result in any signatory Attorney General seeking all available relief to enforce this Assurance, including an injunction, civil penalties, court and investigative costs, attorneys' fees, restitution, and any other mechanism provided by the laws of the state or authorized by a court.

VIII. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Any failure of any Attorney General to exercise any right under this Assurance shall not constitute a waiver of any rights hereunder by such Attorney General or any other Attorney General.

2. Counsel for Zappos, by and on behalf of Zappos, and the undersigned representatives of each of the Attorneys General, by and on behalf of each Attorney General, hereby represent that each is authorized to enter into and execute this Assurance.

3. Zappos is and has been represented by legal counsel and has been advised by its legal counsel of the meaning and effect of this Assurance.

4. Nothing in this Assurance shall be construed as relieving Zappos of its obligations to comply with all applicable state and federal laws, regulations, and rules, or as granting permission to engage in any acts or practices prohibited by such law, regulation, or rule.

5. The Attorneys General have not approved any of Zappos' business practices, past, current or future, and nothing contained herein shall be interpreted to mean otherwise.

6. This Assurance may be enforced only by the parties hereto. Nothing in this Assurance shall provide any rights or permit any person or entity not a party hereto (including without limitation any state, attorney general or other public official not a party hereto) to enforce any provision of this Assurance. No person, entity or official not a signatory hereto is a third-party beneficiary of this Assurance. Nothing in this Assurance shall be construed to affect, limit, alter or assist any private right of action that a consumer may hold against Zappos, nor shall anything in this Assurance confer upon any consumer standing to pursue any private right of action against Zappos.

7. For any dispute between an Attorney General and Zappos arising under or relating to this Assurance, including a purported conflict with other law or proposed modification, the party raising the dispute shall give particularized written notice to the other party of the issue(s) in dispute prior to initiating any court proceeding relating to the dispute.

8. This Assurance shall not be construed or used as a waiver or any limitation of any defense otherwise available to Zappos in any pending or future legal or administrative action or proceeding relating to Zappos' conduct prior to the Effective Date of this Assurance or of Zappos' right to defend itself from, or make any arguments in, any individual or class suits or claims relating to the Exfiltration Incident or to the existence, subject matter, or terms of this Assurance.

9. The obligations and provisions of this Assurance set forth in paragraphs 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7 of section III ("Requirements") and IV ("Payment") shall expire at the conclusion of the two (2) year period after the Effective Date of this Assurance, unless they have expired at an earlier date pursuant to their specific terms. Provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph should be construed or applied to excuse Zappos from its obligation to comply with all applicable state and federal laws, regulations, and rules.
